

After London

John Timberlake and Joy Sleeman

The Stephen Lawrence Gallery

Thursday 3 March - Saturday 2 April

Greenwich resident Richard Jefferies' 1885 novel After London imagined the city engulfed by contaminated swamp. Using this starting point, Sleeman's writing and Timberlake's montages reflect shared interests of landscape and imaginative transformations of the everyday.

Private View: Thursday 3 March, 6 - 8 pm

Gallery Event: Sunday 13 March, 2 - 4 pm

Matthew Beaumont and Will Self discuss issues surrounding the exhibition with John Timberlake and Joy Sleeman.
