

“But no one told me it’s okay to not drink”: a qualitative study of young people who drink little or no alcohol

Table 1: Ethnicity of respondents

Ethnicity	Number of respondents
White British	20
Black British	4
Black African	7
Indian	3
Chinese	3
Turkish	3
Other* ¹	12
Total number of respondents	52

*includes young people from Eastern European countries and mixed ethnicities.

¹ In order to protect the anonymity of respondents (there were several respondents who were the only respondent of a particular ethnicity) some re-classification into 'other' category has been undertaken.
